This disclaimer states the standing of the material on zamanadil.com: who speaks, what a page is, what a page is not, and the care a reader should take before relying on it.

It is issued by Dr. Adil Zaman in his personal professional capacity as proprietor of the site. It is not a seal or a decision of the University of Gujrat. The clause numbers are part of the instrument. Headings are for ease of reference and do not change the meaning of the clause beneath them.

1. Personal capacity

1.1 Research reviews, pieces in Opinion & Blogs, and the other editorial text of this site are the work of their author. They do not state the position of the University of Gujrat, of any journal, of any political party, or of any public institution.

1.2 A publication record describes a scholarly work. The record does not, by itself, speak for the publisher or for a co-author. The version of record is the version held by the journal or the publisher.

2. Purpose of the pages

2.1 The site publishes an academic profile, a list of publications, research reviews, opinion, and a description of academic services. The material is offered for academic, educational, and general information.

2.2 A page is not legal advice, electoral advice, financial advice, medical advice, or a consultancy opinion delivered to a particular client. A reader who needs advice for a decision of that kind should consult a person who is qualified, and engaged, to give it.

3. Original sources

3.1 A research review discusses published scholarly work. It is not a substitute for the paper, the data, or the book. A reader who needs the authoritative text should use the journal, the DOI, or the publisher link given on the record.

3.2 Reasonable care is taken with names, dates, figures, and links. An error can remain. Where a decision depends on a source, the original document should be checked. A reader who finds an error is asked to write, through the contact form or to adil.zaman@uog.edu.pk, so that it can be corrected.

4. Reading languages and live translation

4.1 Publications, research reviews, and opinion pages may offer a reading language. Where the text was not written in that language, the screen can show a live translation obtained as the Privacy Notice describes.

4.2 The published text is the text of record. A live translation is an aid to reading. It is not a certified, sworn, or official translation, and it can be imperfect, especially for names, legal terms, and technical terms. It should not be quoted as the author's words.

5. Services and engagements

5.1 The services pages describe research design, quantitative analysis, publication support, electoral and political data research, research consultancy, and academic collaboration that Dr. Adil Zaman may undertake.

5.2 A description on the site is not a retainer, a quotation, an acceptance of instructions, or a promise that a particular engagement will be undertaken. No client relationship, consultancy relationship, or supervisory relationship arises from reading a page, from sending an enquiry, or from receiving an acknowledgement. A relationship arises only when it is agreed in writing, and it is then governed by that agreement rather than by this disclaimer.

5.3 Work of that kind, when it is agreed, is undertaken by Dr. Adil Zaman in a personal professional capacity unless the written agreement states otherwise. It is not, by that fact alone, work of the University of Gujrat.

6. External pages

6.1 A link to a journal, a repository, a DOI resolver, or another website leaves zamanadil.com. Dr. Adil Zaman does not control those pages and is not responsible for their content, their availability, or their privacy practices.

6.2 A link is given so that a source can be found. It is not an endorsement of every statement on the destination page.

7. Intellectual property

7.1 Copyright in the original text of this site remains with Dr. Adil Zaman, except where a publisher or another rightsholder holds the rights in a published work. The footer notice that all rights are reserved records that position.

7.2 Titles, abstracts, and quotations from other authors remain the property of their rightsholders. They are identified so the source can be found. Nothing on this site assigns those rights to the reader.

7.3 A reader may read the site and may share a link to a page. A substantial part of the original text may not be copied for republication without the proprietor's prior written permission, except for a quotation that the applicable law already permits and that is attributed to its source.

7.4 The name and the marks of the University of Gujrat remain the University's. They appear because they state an academic affiliation. They are not licensed to the reader by this site.

8. Care and liability

8.1 Nothing in this disclaimer excludes or limits liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any liability that the law applicable to the reader does not permit to be excluded or limited.

8.2 Subject to clause 8.1, the site is published in good faith. It is not warranted as complete, current, or fit for a particular decision. To the extent the law permits, Dr. Adil Zaman is not liable for loss arising from reliance on a review, an opinion, a link, a description of services, or a live translation, where the reader could have consulted the original source or sought a written engagement under section 5.

9. Governing law and status

9.1 This disclaimer is governed by the laws of Pakistan. The courts of Pakistan have jurisdiction over a dispute arising from it, without prejudice to a mandatory right that the law of the reader's country does not allow to be waived, including a data-protection right described in the Privacy Notice.

9.2 This instrument is not a seal or a decision of the University of Gujrat.

9.3 In this disclaimer, "the site" means zamanadil.com, and "the proprietor" means Dr. Adil Zaman in the capacity stated in the preamble. The Privacy Notice and the Accessibility Statement are separate instruments and are not varied by this disclaimer.
